

FOLFAN Guided Hike: RATTLESNAKE BAR TO AVERY'S POND

WHEN

Sunday, October 28, 2018

9:00 am to noon

Join FOLFAN President Linda McDonald for an easy 4-mile round-trip on the Pioneer Express Trail, stopping to explore the history of Native Americans, the Gold Rush, and early agricultural settlements. See what remains of the North Fork Ditch (flume) and learn about Ira Avery's settling pond—aka Avery's Pond, one of the hidden gems of the Folsom Lake State Recreation Area.

The hike begins at the Rattlesnake Bar area which is about 3 miles North of Granite Bay. Specific instructions for the meet-up will be sent to those who RSVP.

Linda has worked as a State Park tour guide at Hearst Castle and the Governor's Mansion. She loves to bring history to life at State Parks!

BRING

Comfortable walking shoes and appropriate clothing for the weather. Bring water and a snack, sun screen and insect repellent, and your camera!

RSVP

Please email Jim Cassio at jim7@cassio.com with the names, cell phone numbers and email addresses of the hike participants. We will send each person a park pass and information on parking and the exact meet-up location.
